Introduction to the Draft Hague Principles on Choice of Law in International Commercial Contracts. 1.1 When parties enter into a contract that has connections with more than one State, the question of which set of legal rules governs the transaction necessarily arises. The answer to this question is obviously important to a court or arbitral tribunal that must resolve a dispute between the parties but it is also important for the parties themselves, in planning the transaction and performing the contract, to know the set of rules that governs their obligations. 1.2 Determination of the law app
