Modern American poetry. A Foreword. To the sixth revised edition. THIS sixth revision of Modern American Poetry continues the plan as well as the direction of the preceding editions. It goes even further than the fifth edition in placing its emphasis on the more important poets by enlarging their groups of poems and emphasizing their contribution to the period. The notes which introduce each group of poems and the amplified preface have been brought sharply up to date. That a poem has appeared in various anthologies is no proof that it is a good poem. Nor (in spite of those opposed to anthologies) is such publication anything against it. A good poem remains a good poem, no matter how often it is reprinted. Ideal for courses in modern American poetry, modern American literature, modern or contemporary poetry, creative writing-poetry, and American studies, Anthology of Modern American Poetry introduces students to the last 100 years of our poetic heritage in a uniquely rich and provocative format." ...more.
