Dr. Heavenly and Damon are broadening their medical horizons by opening a surgical center all while keeping the flame in their marriage on high. Dr. Simone and Cecil are still under one roof and enjoying family life as Cecil takes on a new title as Dr. Simone's assistant. Dr. Contessa is going back to school to get her masters and working to open a new clinic with her husband Scott. A perceptive, modulated report on doctors' wives and how they cope with the peculiar conditions of their lives. Doctors' wives are a privileged group, but for many there is a conscious trade-off: financial security and prestige are seen as some compensation for the doctor's unpredictable schedule, emotional distance, and unequal needs. Academic medicine and some specialties have always been less intrusive on family life (psychiatrists' wives are not even included in this study) but most doctors' wives have experienced the darker side: birthday parties interrupted by emergency surgery, sex lives repeatedly put on hold, sleep disturbed by 3:00 a.m. phone calls.
