What talk was this of murder? Towards what fantastic destination was his imagination leading him? He was on his way to spend a Christmas holiday among new-found friends. It was the season of goodwill and happiness. Why should his mind be travelling along such a forbidding road? FRANCIS DUNCAN. Murder for Christmas. PREVIEW. NO one could have foretold how it was going to end.Â The landscape was a Christmas card in three dimensions. There would have been no incongruity if a sleigh drawn by reindeer had come sweeping over the brow of the downs. It did not, in fact, seem fantastic that the red-robed figure of Father Christmas was outlined in the moonlight, moving quickly along the terrace of the big house. Murder for Christmas kept me guessing till the end and was extremely well written. I enjoyed the storyline and really liked the characters, particularly Mordecai Tremaine. â€ Show more.
