He examines the relationship between violence, wealth, and knowledge and concludes that an entirely new system of wealth creation is emerging, as well as entirely new approach to information dissemination that places most of our command and control, communications, computing, and intelligence (C4I) investment in the dump heap with the Edsels of the past. He anticipates both the emergence of information wars at all levels, and the demise of bureaucracy. He cautions us about the emerging power of the "Global Gladiators"-religions, corporations, and terrorists (nice little mix) and concludes that Powershift is one of the best readers' books on new transformation at the edge of 21st Century with 25 assumptions on power, knowledge, wealth and violence. It serious has predicted the contribution on new forces arise to tower over the earth and recognized the potential of using information as a fighting tool, published the initiative to make command, control, communications, computers and intelligence (C4I) systems responsive to the fighter; to field these systems quickly; to capitalize on advances in technology; and to shape our doctrine to reflect. these changes. Alvin Toffler has dra
